Stock, gold and produces all close to-morrow.

The Commercial Advertiser says, an arrangement has been entered into between the Adams, American, United States and Merchants Union Express Companies, which takes effect on the lat of January, 1863, and is substantially as follows: The net earnings of the consolidated and the 18; Merchants Union 2615. The territory or lines of the four companies are to be sub-divided so that each shall occupy the same in proportion to their earnings, except such principal points as New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Buffalo, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis, and some other officers of the four companies are to be consolidated. Louis, and some other officers of the four companies are to be consolidated. The expenses are generally reduced. The management of the business is put in the hands of a board of control, which consists of one member from each board of directors, which four choose the fifth, who acts as president. The same tariff which was in operation previous to the time of the Merchants Union Express Company going into business, will be readopted with some few variations.
